Exam Information

The official name of the exam is The Eden Energy Medicine Certified Practitioner Exam.

Exams are based on the knowledge, skills and tasks that a candidate has learned through the Level 1: Fundamentals and Level 2: Certification Training programs. The testing process includes four components: a written exam and a live demonstration focusing on the concepts and techniques of Eden Energy Medicine, and a written and oral exam focusing on ethical principles that are relevant to the practice of EEM. These components are detailed here:

1. Written Exam on the Concepts and Techniques of EEM

- The exam contains a minimum of 100 multiple-choice questions covering content from Level 1: Fundamentals and Level 2: Certification Training.
- This portion of the exam is not intended to be an open-book exam. Please do not use your Course Books as reference material.
- There is a 2-hour time limit for taking the exam. It typically takes candidates 1 to 1-1/2 hours to complete.
- You must get 90% of the questions correct to successfully pass the exam.
- The candidate will automatically receive their numerical score from the online examination system within 30 minutes and will receive instructions on the next step if he or she did not pass.

2. Live Demonstration of EEM Techniques (approximately 1-1/2 hours to 2 hours).

This component of the testing is done live, either in person or via video conference call (usually via Zoom) with a Qualified Examiner.

- The examiner will question the candidate on various elements and protocols contained within the Level 1: Fundamentals and Level 2: Certification Training.
- There is a 2-hour time limit for taking the exam. It typically takes candidates 1- 1/2 hours to complete.

- You must get 75% (a minimum of 84 out of 112 possible points) to successfully pass the exam.
 - There is a total of 28 elements. You will be scored on each element of the exam based on 4 categories:
 - Area of Concern – 1 point, Partial Mastery – 2 points, Mastery – 3 points, Exceeds – 4 points
 - To achieve a Mastery score you must demonstrate all elements of the question accurately as evaluated by the Qualified Examiner.
 - To achieve an Exceeds score on any element you must demonstrate all elements the question at an “experienced practitioner” level as evaluated by the Qualified Examiner.
 - In some instances where you have completed the majority of the demonstration to the satisfaction of the Qualified Examiner, but did not fully demonstrate all elements of the question, you will receive a Partial Mastery score.

3. Written Ethics Exam:

- The written Ethics Exam contains 48 multiple-choice questions covering content from the Ethics Handbook for Energy Healing Practitioners and the Ethics material covered in Level 1: Fundamentals and Level 2: Certification Training program.
- The multiple-choice exam is open-book and you are allowed 3 hours to complete the exam.
- The candidate must get 85% (a minimum of 41 out of 48) of the questions correct to successfully pass the exam. Scores will generally be sent by e-mail within two business days after completing the exam. If a passing score was not obtained, feedback and instructions on the next step will be sent within 30 minutes.
- Re-taking the Ethics Written Exam is unlimited and free.
- The candidate must wait 48 hours before re-taking the Ethics Written Exam.

4. Ethics Oral Exam (approximately 1 hour)

- The Ethics Oral Exam is administered either in-person or via conference call (usually Zoom) by a Qualified Ethics Examiner.
- The candidate must have passed the Written Ethics Exam before scheduling the Oral Ethics Exam.
- The candidate must have the Ethics Handbook for Energy Healing Practitioners available during the Oral Ethics Exam.

- The exam will consist primarily of the Examiner presenting a scenario that an EEM practitioner may encounter and asking the candidate to identify the primary ethical issue involved, to identify the ethical principles designed to offer guidance in handling this type of situation (time will be allotted to refer to the Ethics Handbook for Energy Healing Practitioners to review the list of ethical principles), to identify dilemmas this particular scenario presents that go beyond the guidance available from the general ethical principles, and to describe how he or she might handle the situation.
- The Qualified Examiner will provide the pass/fail score and written feedback to the candidate within 48 hours of exam completion.

We have timed and tested the exam to allow for a reasonable time for the majority of candidates to complete the exam. If English is your second language or you have a learning disability and/or require additional time to take the exam, please submit a Request for Certification Exam Accommodations Form.*

Preparing for the Exam

We all know how stressful it is to take tests and we would like to offer some strategies regarding how to prepare for the Eden Energy Medicine Certification Exam. First of all, please know that almost everyone has test anxiety and that a small amount of anxiety can actually assist you to perform better as you prepare to take the test. Many of you have studied energy work from a variety of perspectives. We strongly suggest that as you prepare for the exam, you utilize the recommended EEM resources as study guides. This will hopefully eliminate any confusion with questions that you might respond to differently based on your life's experiences. Good self-care will help you perform at your best.

Before taking test

- Prepare for the test by reviewing this Handbook and being aware of the testing topics.
- Study the EEM syllabi and carefully review all components of each level of the EEM courses.
- Read and review the Ethics Handbook for Energy Healing Practitioners by David Feinstein prior to the exam.
- Make sure you are studying from recommended resources for the certification exam and that you respond to the test questions based on EEM's course of study.

The day of the test

- Get a good night's sleep before the exam.
- Eat a healthy meal prior to taking the exam (best not to load up on carbs and perhaps get sleepy during the test!).

- Make sure you know where the test site is located, or if you have elected to do the test over video conferencing make sure you have the proper link and have gone through all the technical tests and requirements listed here <https://edenmethod.com/technical-requirements/> and get to the location or join the conference call in plenty of time so you can remain relaxed.
- Go to the test well prepared (you have studied for the test, you are comfortably dressed, you might even use an essential oil to help diminish any feelings of stress and anxiety).

What to Bring

In addition to a client, please bring a magnet (if you are not magnet-sensitive), a crystal, and a stainless-steel spoon to your demonstration session.

During the demonstration, you will be allowed to look up anything that one might expect to look up during a regular Eden Energy Medicine (EEM) session by bringing the following illustrations or charts with you to your session:

- Sedating and Strengthening Acupressure Points
- NL and NV Points
- Source Points
- Seed Points
- Radiant Circuit Locations
- Acupoint Locations on Spleen and Liver Meridians
- Muscle Meridian Chart
- Zone Tapping Chart
- Revitalizing Electrics Protocol
- Finger Modes
- Wind Points
- Xi Cleft Points

The test is intended to be comprehensive and will also include material that you are expected to know without reference to a chart. For example, you should know the locations of the Alarm Points and meridian pathways, as well as the information contained in the 24-hour Flow Wheel and the Five Rhythms model. During the demonstration session, you will be required to demonstrate competency in this basic level of material without referring to a book or chart.

During the test

- Take a centering breath before you begin – take time to mentally prepare and focus on the task at hand before reading that first question.
- Read each question twice before answering – make sure you understand what the question is asking. Think of your own response before you look at the response choices on the test.
- Promote your self-confidence before and during the test by using positive self-talk.

Good luck!
